

High school graduation rate

Health Priority J: Social and Economic Factors that Influence Health

Objective J3b: Between 2000 and 2010, attain an overall high school graduation rate for Wisconsin students of 95 percent.

2010 Target: 95%

Indicator: High school graduation rate, overall

Wisconsin High School Completion Rate*

School Year	Total	Males	Females
1999-2000	89.3%	87.9%	90.8%
2000-2001	90.0%	88.6%	91.3%
2001-2002	90.8%	89.3%	92.3%
2002-2003	91.8%	90.6%	93.0%
2003-2004	91.2%	89.9%	92.5%

Source: WINSS Successful School Guide, Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction (DPI). See data documentation.

*Completion rate, regular diploma

Note: DPI changed the rate calculation formula in 2004. The denominator is now larger and completion rates may be correspondingly lower. Comparisons to previous years should be made cautiously.

Continued on next page

High school graduation rate, continued

Health Priority J: Social and Economic Factors that Influence Health

Objective J3c: Between 2000 and 2010, eliminate racial/ethnic disparities in high school graduation rates of Wisconsin students.

2010 Target: No difference in statewide average graduation rate and rates for racial/ethnic minority populations.

Indicator: High school graduation rate, by race/ethnicity

Wisconsin High School Completion Rate* by Race/Ethnicity

School Year	Total	African American	American Indian	Asian	Hispanic	White
1999-2000	89.3%	51.4%	73.8%	88.0%	69.3%	93.7%
2000-2001	90.0%	55.2%	73.1%	88.6%	70.5%	94.2%
2001-2002	90.8%	59.9%	76.8%	91.1%	75.0%	94.6%
2002-2003	91.8%	62.9%	78.5%	91.4%	76.2%	95.2%
2003-2004	91.2%	65.7%	79.4%	92.2%	77.1%	94.7%

Source: WINSS Successful School Guide, Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction. See data documentation.

* Completion rate, regular diploma

** Non-Hispanic

Note: DPI changed the rate calculation formula in 2004. The denominator is now larger and completion rates may be correspondingly lower. Comparisons to previous years should be made cautiously.